

2023 General Synod

Local Arrangements Committee

Ms. Jennifer Atkinson
Committee Chair, Hospitality

Jennifer is a member of St. Peter's United Church of Christ in Carmel, Indiana. She and her husband joined the congregation in 2015 and she is now serving the last year of her term as congregational president. Jennifer has also participated with various missions including the PRIDE Parade, handbell choir, Technology Team, and Family Promise (an interfaith hospitality program for families experiencing homelessness.)

Jennifer is a principal and managing partner with MMA, Inc., a regional multifamily housing analysis company based in Indianapolis, Indiana. She has a particular passion for Housing First projects, where housing is provided with very low barriers to those experiencing homelessness; she was also the lead author of an industry white paper on affordable assisted living. Previous jobs include technical writing for FORTRAN compilers, writing code for solid-fuel rocket propulsion systems, running the technical training for an early mobile sales app, and running a commercial appraisal company.

This will be her first time attending a General Synod. Jennifer and her husband Brian have three wonderful young adult daughters and a similarly wonderful son-in-law.
