

2023 General Synod

Local Arrangements Committee

Pastor Sarah Frische-Mouri Hannigan
Committee Chair, Worship

Sarah Frische-Mouri Hannigan has served as pastor to Zion (Troy Ave.) United Church of Christ in Indianapolis for over five years. At the association level, she currently serves on the Eviction Ministry Committee of the Southeast Association. Having grown up in the Indiana-Kentucky Conference, she's been involved in the conference in a variety of ways, from paging at Annual Gathering, to heading up the Annual Gathering Planning Team in 2018. She was part of Generation 4 of the Young Ambassadors Program and later served on the IKC-EKvW Partnership Team for several years. She continues to serve on the Sri Lanka Partnership Team and loves building relationships with our international partners, as they learn and grow together. She began her term on the Common Global Ministries Board in 2019.

Sarah began attending General Synod in 2003, missing only the 30th General Synod held in Cleveland, OH. At Synod she has served as a delegate in a variety of capacities and as a committee chair. She has also helped with worship leadership at Synod. She believes Synod is something that every UCCer should experience at least once and can't wait to help welcome you to Synod in Indianapolis in 2023. Synod is an incredible opportunity to gather with the church, find inspiration and encouragement, learn, worship, and build relationships.

She graduated from Elmhurst College with a BA in Religion and from Christian Theological Seminary with a dual MDiv/MTS degree. As her schedule has allowed, she has found great joy in teaching religion classes at Franklin College as a guest lecturer.

Outside of church life, Sarah is an avid knitter and crocheter, dabbles in weaving, and is a fountain pen enthusiast. She enjoys spending time with her partner, Sean, and loves to hang out with her baby niece, nephews, and the rest of her family.
